

Instructions for authors

The journal solicits only original, previously unpublished work. Articles can be written in Czech, Slovak, English, or German. Please be advised that if the article is written in a language that is not the author's native language, authors are asked to have their manuscript carefully checked by a native speaker.

Manuscripts (Microsoft Word, font size 12 pts., line spacing 1.5, justified alignment) should be submitted electronically. Please email the article as an attached file (*.docx and also *.pdf) to the address kg@ujc.cas.cz. Papers are accepted throughout the year. Each submission must be accompanied by an abstract of 100–150 words, written in English.

The file with the electronic submission should contain the following:

- submission title
- author's first and last name
- affiliation and the author's email address
- abstract in English
- structured text of the article
- references

Formatting guidelines:

- The paper should be divided into sections (and, possibly, subsections). These are numbered in a decimal system, up to four levels (e.g. 1; 1.1; 1.1.2; 1.1.2.1). If additional subsections are needed, use Roman numerals (I, II) or letters (A; a).
- Attested examples should be numbered sequentially, by using numbers enclosed in parentheses: (1). Examples are not indented but each example forms a separate paragraph. If an example consists of multiple sentences (for stylistic, contextual, etc. purposes), they are written in one contiguous sequence, not as separate (and numbered) paragraphs. The examples should be separated from the main text by a single line and typed in a different font, preferably in Verdana, size 9 pts, single spaced.

- Each example is accompanied by reference to its source. If the example is taken from an electronic corpus, it is sufficient to name the corpus; if the corpus has a standard abbreviation, use the abbreviation, e.g. SYN2020.
- Tables must be numbered and each table must be accompanied by a caption. Tables are left-justified.
- Footnotes are numbered sequentially and placed at the bottom of the page.
- Literature cited in the text: (Daneš 1969: 86) / ... Daneš (1969: 86).
- Bibliographic references are formatted as follows:

DUŠKOVÁ, L. (1984): Some contrastive notes on interrogative sentences in Czech and in English. Philologica Pragensia, 72–82.

BIRJULIN, N. A. – CHRAKOVSKIJ, V. S. (2001): Imperative sentences: theoretical problems. In: V. S. Chakovskij (ed.), Typology of Imperative Constructions. München: Lincom Europa, 3–50.

ZIFONUN, G. – HOFFMANN, L. – STRECKER, B., et al. (1997): Grammatik der deutschen Sprache, Bd. 2. Berlin – New York: Walter de Gruyter.

The editors reserve the right to reject unsuitable submissions and to request revisions. Each submission will be reviewed anonymously by two reviewers, not by the journal's editors.